MINISTRY LEADER:

MINISTRY CALLING:

Legacy Disciple

BACKGROUND:

Brian grew up in the Humboldt Park neighborhood of Chicago. Growing up in poverty with an alcoholic father and a mother with mental illness was challenging, yet God provided an extended family of support through a small local church. People at this church invited Brian into their lives and at age 12, a carpenter by trade was specifically used by God in his life. On Friday nights, he would take Brian to a gym in Cabrini Green where he would play basketball and share the Gospel with a group of teens. On Saturdays, he would take Brian to help people with small projects on their house and here Brian learned to serve. On Sundays, he would invite Brian over for dinner with him and his wife and Brian saw a godly marriage in action. Each time they were together, he would share a Scripture that he had been meditating on. Through his investment, Brian gave his life to Christ just before his teenage years. Brian quickly grew a heart to be used by God in the same way for others and for the past 30+ years of his life he has invested his life into this work.

2 TIMOTHY 2:2
