

LOUIS Dooley

MINISTRY LEADER:

Louis Dooley

FAMILY:

Julie (Wife)

MINISTRY CALLING:

Philemon House

BACKGROUND:

Louis Dooley is a former prisoner with two life sentences + 100 years. Now a free man by the grace of God, he is giving hope through the Gospel to other inmates. He strives to plant Bible studies in Cook County Jail, helping detainees learn how to study God's Word. He also goes into the youth detention centers in Warrenville and St. Charles where he works to establish relationships with the young men and women there and introduce them to and further their relationships with Jesus Christ. He and his wife, Julie, recently launched Philemon House which helps young men newly out of prison have a home and family experience as they further heal and live lives worthy of their callings.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- That they would be led by the Holy Spirit and not the flesh.
- That the right men would be led to live with them after their release from jail or prison.
